Communication - Transference of Information

- ☒ This essence increases the ability to transfer information.
- ☒ It enhances whatever sense is necessary to do this.
- ☒ It is an exceptional remedy for singers and lecturers for articulation and receiving information.
- ☒ Student-teacher communication is stimulated, telepathic transference of information increases.
- ☒ Celandine benefits people unable to receive information clearly, such as stubborn people and individuals with short attention spans.
- ☒ All forms of dialogue are enhanced.
- ☒ It activates lucid dreaming and receiving of information from spirit guides.
- ☒ It affects the throat chakra and the nadis in the throat chakra.
- ☒ Another function of celandine is to stimulate the tantric experience and exchange of male and female energy. After sexual activity the male has a heightened intuitive and meditative quality, whilst the female has received the male's analytical outlook. Celandine stimulates these traits. Ingest the essence before any sexual communication begins.
