

True Elements™

Nikken's answer to beautiful skin

NIKKEN® Discover it. Live it.

Seaweed has been used for nutrition and skincare for thousands of years, and it's seaweed – packed full of trace elements and minerals – that forms the core of our True Elements™ skincare range.

We sustainably harvest all the seaweed used in True Elements™ from a world UNESCO site just off the coast of Brittany. This means that the area where the seaweed is taken from is preserved and protected as part of the world's cultural heritage and is considered to be of outstanding value to humanity.

And due to our high-quality processing standards, we know exactly which species of seaweed are used, how the ingredients are extracted (close-by on the seashore) and how they are added to our products.

In line with our natural, wholesome philosophy, we are proud to say that our True Elements™ range has been certified Organic and that our skincare formulas are 99% natural.

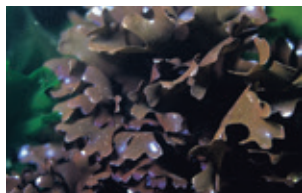

Nikken's skincare range is refreshingly easy to use, with three carefully tailored regimes – one for Moisturising for Under 40s, one for Anti-Ageing for Over 40s and one for the Body. Our products take the natural power and life force of the ocean and combine it into a pH-balanced range that's in harmony with your skin.

So try True Elements™: Nikken's answer to beautiful skin.

The True Elements™ range contains only the finest ingredients, and to protect skin, our products exclude synthetic fragrances, only using natural fragrances and the gentler extracts of essential oils.

Below are the types of naturally powerful ingredients you'll find in True Elements™:

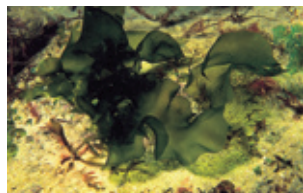

Chondrus crispus

Its purpose is to protect the skin's water supply, helping to soothe, nourish, and regenerate skin cells.

Crithmum maritimum

This seaweed extract reinforces antioxidant protection and stimulates skin cell renewal for improved anti-ageing results. It also contributes to radiance and tone.

Ulva lactuca

An alga that helps to energise, promote radiance, and boost elastin fibres to assist with anti-ageing.

Laminaria digitata

Rich in minerals and trace elements, this alga helps to accelerate cellular exchanges, improving hydration and promoting a natural glow.

Fucus vesiculosus

By concentrating the active substances of the sea before it's harvested, this alga helps to stimulate microcirculation of the blood in the skin.

Polysaccharides

These extracts have two roles: to keep the skin hydrated and to help release the active ingredients contained in True Elements™ products for maximum benefit.

Aloe Vera

Helps to keep skin supple, and it also hydrates, energises and heals the skin.

Hyaluronic acid

This naturally occurring acid has an exceptional moisturising action on the skin, and it also helps to stimulate collagen production.

The True Elements™ range also contains further active ingredients: Enriching oils such as Shea Butter, sunflower seed oil and olus oils can also be found in certain True Elements™ products, and they help to increase skin nourishment.
